But it is in towns that the iniquity of the crows reaches its maximum. The Madras corvidue are a byword throughout the length and breadth of India. The hospital is their favorite playground. They are never so happy as when annoying the inmates. They know at once when a person is too ill possessed of sufficient intelligence to refrain from alighting on the basket. Had it done so its presence would probably have been detected. It slapped along just above the top of the basket, keeping pace with the woman, and so, unperceived by her, made a meal off the contents. The knavish tricks of crows are by no means confined to human beings.
